CHNA / MARTHA RYBINSKI ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP

Thanks to the generous matching donation of the Amvets Post 6 Ladies Auxiliary, we are pleased to announce that the Scholarship has been increased to $300 for the year 2014. Our scholarship is open to students entering or presently attending a 4-year, 2-year college or technical school with the following criteria:

- A cumulative GPA of 2.75 or above
- Accepted admission to a 4-year, 2-year or technical school
- A resident of Clifton Heights or whose parents, grandparents / guardian are residents of Clifton Heights
- Completing a CHNA Scholarship Application
- An essay on why you deserve to be awarded the CHNA Scholarship (limited to one page please)
- Any application not completed in full will not be considered for the scholarship
- A copy of your proof of admission/current enrollment
- Proof of GPA

The application period for 2014 starts August 01 and ends September 10. Applications available at the CHNA meeting, email request to contact.chna@gmail.com or download from website www.cliftonheights-stl.org or contact a CHNA officer directly.

Speaking of Friends ...

We have new group of friends in the neighborhood ~ meet the Friends of Clifton Park!

And this is who they are ... "Friends of Clifton Park is a non-profit started by a group of neighbors who are committed to ensuring this beautiful green space remains vibrant and stable for generations to come."

"We believe that parks like ours are vital for healthy neighborhoods and strong communities. They give us a sense of place and pride – a spot to retreat from the day today, to enjoy the good things with our families and neighbors. Our mission is our north star – to preserve, improve and foster community support for one of St. Louis' best kept secrets - Clifton Park." www.friendsofcliftonparkstl.org
